- Being absent from a class one day has never affected my grade so terribly. I did not understand anything he was trying to teach. I would have failed this class if it weren't for the other section helping me
- In my opinion, the way the class was designed wasn't too effective. The classes was asynchronous and we did not learn much in the sessions. We were expected to learn before coming to the session when there are no other way to learn the materials unless its one powerpoint.
- Wish instructor was in zoom calls more frequently
